

The foundation looks to support women and their families living in Southern Saskatchewan. In order to be eligible for possible funding the individual must be a Saskatchewan resident receiving medical care within the Regina Qu'appelle Health Region, must be a mother of at least one child under the age of 15, and must be currently battling an advanced stage cancer diagnosis. The application form is available online and through a variety of community organizations. The application form must be completed in full in order to be considered for funding.
